

EXHIBITION AND SALE Oriental Rugs

A more than usually interesting exhibition of fine Oriental Rugs is on view in our Rug and Drapery Department, on the Third Floor. Mr. Peters, of Boston, the expert who has conducted these sales for us for years is in charge. In spite of the extreme difficulty met in securing rugs, he has assembled a beautiful showing of the smaller sizes, and offers them at prices which are in reality very low.

Mr. Peters will be glad to meet his many friends and show his new stock, which includes some very handsome examples of Chinese rug weaving. If you are at all interested in Orientals you are invited to visit this exhibition.

Have your Oriental Rugs repaired and cleaned. Mr. Peters has in his employ experts in this art.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVIS THEATRE. DAVIS THEATRE.

Dorothy Gish has again returned to the field of pure comedy. In I'll Get Him Yet, her current picture, which will be shown at the Davis theatre to-day and Saturday, there will be no difficulty on the part of the audience to work out the problems of the play. The picture deals with a girl who has in her own right an entire street railway and interurban system. She marin her own right an entire street railway and interurban system. Sie marries a newspaper reporter who is in love with her but almost incane on the "marrying money" subject. In order to complete the ceremony she tells him
she will never accept another penny from her father, but does not inform him that she is worth several millions in her own name. The complications that arise when she has to meet the persons who are in charge of her estate give her the best opportunity for comedy of any picture she has ever appeared in.

The second big feature on this

The second big feature on this program is Bessie Barriscale in her latest screen triumph entitled Patrictism, a six-part super production that will thrill you and make you feel will thrill you and make you feel proud that you are an American. This picture is by far the best offering Miss Barriscale has ever appeared in and is well worth seeing. The Dentist, a funny Mack Sennett comedy, with Charles Murray and Marie Prevost, comletes this unusually attractive bill at the Davis.

New Fairbanks picture, The Knick-erbocker Buckaroo, coming to the Davis next week, has a new formula for enjoyment:

Take all the stunts that Douglas Fairbanks has ever pulled in all the other motion pictures in which he has been the central and dominating figure. Multiply them by 16, or say 12, to be more nearly right, and add a dozen or more varieties of gymnastic thrills.

Take the best and most thrilling combination of romance, mystery, dash, pep, ginger and speed, and mix well together with a story of the most unusual character.

There are no melodic eccentricities such as we have found within the last two years in some of the foreign operettas, but attractive and beautiful airs, east-ly caught and remembered, and that ly caught and remembered, and that will soon be nicked un and carried everywhere. The enfarement in Norwich will be for one night Wednesday. Sept. 24th, at the Davis theatre, and will be looked upon with great interest, as a carefully selected cast has been selected, including the original complete production. Sale of seats starts Monday at 10 a.m.

BREED THEATRE.

It is doubtful if any motion picture was ever awaited with as much inwas ever awaited with as much in-terest and anticipation in Norwich as Douglas Fairbanks' new picture, His Majesty the American, which will be the attraction at the Breed theatre today. Saturday and Sunday. Something more than mere interest in a motion picture lies back of this anticipation, for His Majesty the American is Douglas Fairbanks' first indepen-dent production and marks the first release of United Artists corporation. the so-called Big Four. The first picture made under these ideal con-ditions is His Majesty the American. The management of the Breed theatre feels great pride in having secured this production for its city. The Breed theatre has always endeavored to choose its attractions with discrimination and regardless of expense. In the case of His Majesty the American, knowing what a Douglas Fairbanks film will be when the inimitable Douglan put his best into it, the thentre management feels, and justly so, that it will offer to its patrons today, Saturday and Sunday what should prove to be the very height of screen entertainment.
The Pathe News, showing New York's enthusiastic welcome to Gen-eral Pershing, will complete the bill. In order that all may have an onportunity of seeing this exceptionally fine program, the management will give four shows daily, at 2.30, 5, 7.30 and 3 p. m.
